

AGRI-TOURISM & SUSTAINABLE AGRICULTURE IN BEDFORD COUNTY

A CONVERSATION WITH TOURISM DIRECTOR JERRY CRAIG

THURS, FEB 26 | 7PM | BOWER CENTER

With 200,000 acres of farmland and 1,400 farms, Bedford County is home to a strong agriculture industry and a growing local food movement. As public interest in local foods continues to rise what role can agri-tourism play in helping connect farmers and the wider community?

Join us for an open conversation with new tourism director Jerry Craig as he discusses plans for growing the county's focus on agri-tourism and it's importance for the local food movement.

WHERE: Bower Center for the Arts
305 North Bridge St. Bedford, VA 24523
(downstairs in the terrace gallery)

WHEN: Thursday, Feb. 26th at 7pm

RSVP at LandAndTable.com or to Jerry Craig at: 540-587-5682